

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC POLICY QUICK FACTS

EARN A MASTER OF PUBLIC POLICY (MPP)

Our master of public policy program is unique, melding quantitative policy analysis with coursework in applied history, political philosophy, strategy, and communications to prepare students for impactful careers across all sectors. The Pepperdine School of Public Policy prides itself on its multidisciplinary approach to policy studies and its personalized dedication to graduate education. Overlooking the Pacific Ocean, we not only have the best views California has to offer, but we also “See Public Policy (and your future) Differently from Here.”

ONE DEGREE | FIVE SPECIALIZATIONS

(Double specialization available without adding time):

Applied
Economic Policy

Public Policy and Dispute Resolution

International Relations and National Security

American Policy and Politics

State and Local Policy

JOINT DEGREES

Joint degrees require separate application and admittance to each Pepperdine graduate school.

Master of Public Policy/Juris Doctor

A 4-year, full-time program with the Pepperdine School of Law

Master of Public Policy/Master of Business Administration

A 3-year, full-time program with the Pepperdine Graziadio Business School

Master of Public Policy/Master of Dispute Resolution

A joint program with the Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution at the Pepperdine School of Law

SCHOLARSHIPS

The School of Public Policy awards tuition scholarships each year made available through endowed funds, gifts from supporters, and alumni. The scholarship committee awards are based on merit, academics, and professional experiences.

Scholarship Stats

90% of our students receive scholarship support

66% of tuition, on average, covered by School of Public Policy scholarships

LOCATED IN THE HEART OF MALIBU

Nestled in the Santa Monica Mountains and stretching for 27 miles, Malibu is the perfect spot to relax (and study). Malibu is 20 to 30 minutes away from Santa Monica/Venice, the San Fernando Valley, Downtown Los Angeles, Ventura, and other popular West Coast destinations. There are more than 90 state parks and beaches near Malibu with an annual average of 281 sunny days to enjoy the outdoors.

HOMELAND SECURITY ADVISORY COUNCIL AT THE SCHOOL OF PUBLIC POLICY (HSAC@SPP)

- Engages the public, private, and civic sectors to expand disaster preparedness, crisis management, and resiliency
- Prepares the current and next generation of public leaders
- Harnesses the school's unique curriculum dedicated to exploring the full range of cross-sector and information technology solutions to public policy challenges

DAVENPORT INSTITUTE FOR PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT AND CIVIC LEADERSHIP

- Works with local governments, nonprofit organizations, and residents
- Promotes and supports constructive and broad-based civic involvement in decisions that affect people where they work and live

WASHINGTON, DC POLICY SCHOLARS PROGRAM

- Exclusive full-tuition scholarship, 3-unit course
- Course limited to 20 qualified rising undergraduate junior/seniors and recently graduated young professionals
- Explores the role of faith in American domestic and foreign policies