

2023 CZYZYK DC SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The Pepperdine School of Public Policy Czyzyk DC Scholars Program offers an exclusive, full-tuition scholarship for a 3-unit seminar held at the Pepperdine campus in DC's Foggy Bottom neighborhood. Top policy academics and practitioners will provide accepted students with a better understanding of the vital interconnection between culture, history, and public policy. Each four-week seminar is open to only 20 qualified scholars selected through a competitive application process. Note that a separate application must be submitted for each seminar.

Upon completion of the program, scholars will receive an applied religion in public policy certificate (for session one) and/or an applied philosophy in education policy certificate (for session two) from the School of Public Policy. Credits may be used toward future enrollment at the Pepperdine School of Public Policy for a master of public policy degree.

DEADLINE TO APPLY FOR EITHER SEMINAR IS 5 pm PT, FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 2023
